

William Marriot Museum Holt Station

The William Marriott Museum will be open daily over the Mixed Traction Gala.

Museum admission is FREE with a valid NNR ticket. Admission is £1 for non-travelling adults.

All accompanied children are free at all times and there are quizzes for all ages.

Fun For the Kids

Looking to keep the kids entertained?

We have activity packs that are available for free. Collect one from a souvenir shop.

The children's activity coach at Sheringham will also be open over the event. There's plenty to look at around the different stations.

A Pie & Chips train will operate on Friday 14th June. The train will depart at 18:00 from Sheringham. The cost is £15 per person for the food, a valid train ticket is also required.

The 'Muddle & Go Nowhere' Gresley bar is also on board. The service will be hauled by the resident Class 37 D6732. Bookings for this can be placed by visiting the general office at Sheringham station.

Tickets

Gala tickets can be purchased from all main stations on the line.

Rover tickets are valid all day on any train.

Facilities

There are buffets and souvenir shops at the three main stations. Sheringham buffet will be serving hot food until 14:00.

There is also a real ale bar in the ladies' waiting room on platform 1 at Sheringham.

The 'Muddle & Go Nowhere' Gresley bar car is on Set A, serving real ale, hot and cold drinks and snacks.

The Restaurant Buffet car is on Set B, offering all day breakfasts, hot and cold drinks, snacks and bottled ales from the licensed bar.
